Release and Assignment of Insurance Payments

The parties appearing below, on the date specified below, hereby agree to the following conditions, covenants, and terms regarding the benefits appearing in the policy belonging to _____ (Patient's Name, hereinafter referred to as "Patient") issued by _____ (Insurance Company Name, hereinafter referred to as "Insurance Company").

I, Patient, understand and voluntarily agree to assign all applicable medical pay provisions appearing in my insurance policy named above directly to the doctor.

The patient request, orders, and directs Insurance Company to pay the doctor directly at his office at 2021 Main Street, Stratford, CT 06615 the sums due to the doctor for all treatment received by Patient. The patient gives the doctor the exclusive right to secure the funds assigned by the patient, including the right of securing consent to represent the doctor in collecting all sums due for treatment rendered as well as any and all collections costs and fees. Patient authorizes the doctor to endorse any and all drafts on behalf of the patient and credit that amount to the patient's account.

That doctor and patient hereby enter into this agreement of benefits freely and voluntarily as evidenced by the signatures appearing below; that patient and the doctor warrant that they have read this assignment of benefits and that each understands the legal effect of the same and agree that each shall be bound by the covenants, terms and conditions appearing herein. I further authorize release of any information necessary to process my insurance claims and assign and request payment directly to Dr. Edward C. Corseello.

HIPAA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry our treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. "Protected Health Information" is information about you, including demographic information that may identify you and that related to your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and related care services.

Use and Disclosures of Protected Health Information:

Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, our staff and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, pay your health care bills, to support the operations of the physician's practice, and any other use required by law.

Treatment: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to you. For example, your health care information may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

Healthcare Operations: We may disclose, as needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physician's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical students, licensing, marketing, and fund raising activities, and conduction or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical school students that see patients at our office. Or if you consent to give a video testimony, we may show it on the office signs. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your physician. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when your physician is ready to see you. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We may also communicate with you via email or text message.

We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations included as required by law, public health issues, communicable diseases, health oversight, abuse or neglect, food and drug administration requirements, legal proceedings, law enforcement, coroners, funeral directors, and organ donation. Required uses and disclosures under the law, we must make disclosures to you when required by the Secretary of the
